EL PASO, Tex., March 21.-Gen. Lewis C. Fry, of the "United States Industrial Army," has sent to each member of Congress the following letter:

That you may be theroughly informed, I send you a preamble and constitution of the United States Industrial Army. You must be aware of the fact that nature is not at fault, for we have the most prolife country in the world-sing granteness are full of material for clothes, and our cities have millions of vacant houses, and yet our people are ranged, hungry and homeless.

These conditions are brought about by victims and ignorant legislation in the interest of the plutocrats. The army is dully increasing, and will, perhaps, number 480,000. They are marching on to present you a living putting of want and misery, one that cannot be thrown into the waste basket, to you request to pass some laws for their immediate relief. Congress the following letter:
